Tragic Christopher's incredible gift of life

GRIEVING parents have paid tribute to their son who died after suffering a massive brain haemorrhage.

Christopher Skinner, 24, who had complained of bad headaches two days earlier, collapsed on Cambridge's Parker's Piece and was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital, where he later died.

Parents Nigel and Anna Skinner and their 21-year-old daughter Clare said they were devastated, but revealed two other lives had been saved through Christopher's organs being donated.

Anna and Clare were two days into a two-week trip to Canada when news Christopher was ill reached them. They immediately got on to a plane home, but he died before they arrived.

Mr Skinner received a call at 2am on Sunday to say Christopher was in Addenbrooke's, after collapsing two hours before.

He made the decision that his son's kidneys should be donated after doctors told him nothing could be done to save Christopher.

Mrs Skinner, a nurse in the eye department at Addenbrooke's, said the whole family carried donor cards and had discussed the use of their organs should the occasion arise.

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Speaking from the family home in Chapple Drive, Haverhill, she said: "I think it is the best gift you can give to anybody. It gives me the thought that a little bit of him is still out there, that he is helping out a mate like he always used to do."

"Christopher took me to the airport on Friday and he had his instructions – make sure you feed the cats and don't leave the television on. I gave him a hug and kiss and told him to be good."

"He gave me this wicked grin and never in a million years did I think it would be the last one I got from him."

"After Christopher's death, one of his friends phoned up and said: 'He was one of the best friends you could have, always loyal and he would do anything for anybody.' I think that sums him up, he had a heart of gold."

"You never think you are going to bury your kids, it is not right, the wrong order of things."

Mr Skinner said: "It was a really catastrophic haemorrhage and they did everything they could, but nothing could save him."

"Because he was deteriorating fast I had to make a decision and I could not see any sense in delaying it and not being able to use the organs."

Friends have charity boost down to a tee

GENEROUS golfers teed-off to the tune of £14,000 at an annual charity golf tournament at the weekend.

The Haverhill Charity Classic, organised in association with the Weekly News, took place at Haverhill Golf course on Saturday when 40 teams of four battled it out despite stormy weather and heavy showers.

Haverhill Rotary Club helped organise the event for the first time and Chris Briggs, chairman of the organising committee, said he was delighted with the support received from local businesses. The players included Howard Ward, Andy Mason and Graham Spencer, who each pledged £500 for the event from their companies.

Most of the money raised this year will go to EACH (East Anglian Children's Hospices), with the remainder for Rotary charities. Chris Briggs said: "We are very pleased with the outcome. We had a lot of support from businesses in the town and the auction in the evening alone raised £2,000."

Winners were: First place, Burgess Brickwork with 117 points, Jamieson Burgess, Dave Spittle, Steve Moye and Jason Letton; second place, Mezdec C with 113 points, Howard Ward, Josh Brown, Oli Cracknell and Antony O'Toole; third place, Hip Hops with 111 points, Dave Cohen, Dave Pipe, John Kennedy and John Gilligan.

Special Juniors winners with 120 points were Daniel Bradnam, Chris Vince and Owen Langley.

Book steams back in stock

A POPULAR book about the history of Haverhill's railways has been re-printed after the original copies sold out.

Glimpse into Haverhill's Railways sold out after the Haverhill and District Local History Group's successful Railway Exhibition and is now available again, priced £4, from the History Centre at Haverhill Arts Centre.

Group member Dennis Backler has sent a copy of the book to the secretary of the Gresley Society, which records the work of Sir Nigel Gresley, who became Chief Mechanical Engineer for the LNER and designed some of the most famous steam locomotives in Britain. The History Group will be honoured to have their book deposited in its archives at the Stephenson Museum in Newcastle.

The History Centre is open to the public on Tuesday from 7-8pm, Thursday and Friday 2-4pm, and Saturday 10.30am to 3.30pm.

Climb your family tree

ANYONE wanting to delve into their family history can go along to a free Haverhill Festival event on Saturday.

Sheila Reed, from the Suffolk Record Offices, will be starting the day at 10am explaining how to discover your family history. This will relate to all counties, not just Suffolk, and is suitable for both beginners and those who have already started, but may be 'stuck'.

A practical session follows from noon until 3pm with help and resources available for many parts of the country to get people started with their search. Local records available will include church registers for Haverhill St Mary's, Sturmer and the Bumpsteads. Contact (01440) 702638.

Plan for garage

A REVISED scheme to build a triple bay garage, garden store and workshop at Nethergate Street, Clare, has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Tribute to Christopher

"We have been told the kidneys were given to two people and they are both doing well.

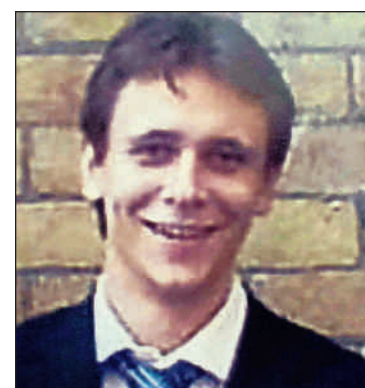

"The doctors don't know what caused the haemorrhage, it could have been something he was born with, but we will never know."

Christopher did a mechanical engineering apprenticeship at Mackay's in Cambridge, then moved on to Hexel, also in Cambridge, but

His funeral will take place at Cambridge Crematorium on Friday, July 6 at 1.30pm and anyone who wants to attend is welcome.

Family flowers only are requested, but donations can be made to the Neurological Critical Care Unit at Addenbrooke's through Cambridge Co-op Funeral Directors.

Event tangled in red tape

AN annual meeting ended just minutes after it began on Tuesday when Haverhill Chamber of Commerce postponed the event because of problems with its constitution.

Chairman Paul Donno told a large audience of bemused members at Haverhill Golf Club that the meeting would be postponed for a month due to a "serious issue", but declined to comment further.

John Dugmore, chief executive of the Suffolk Chamber of Commerce, who was present at the meeting, said: "It is unfortunate that the annual meeting has had to be cancelled but we are looking forward to working with the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and assisting the businesses of Haverhill."

Items on the agenda for the meeting had included the election of a number of officials, including the chairman.

It is understood that another candidate had come forward to challenge Mr Donno, who has held the office for the past four years, following debate on the Haverhill UK website's message boards about accessibility to the chamber.

Non-stick tickets

NEW non-sticky car park tickets have been introduced at Haverhill car parks.

The tickets are issued by new machines which have been installed in the town's car parks and they will not stick to windscreens.

Not only are the new tickets more cost effective, but they can also be recycled because they no longer have glue on the back.

They can be displayed on a car dashboard or, much more securely, by putting them in a clear plastic "parkie" container which can be stuck to windscreens.

These cost 50p and are available from the council offices in Lower Downs Slade.

Car park attendants will also be handing them out free in the coming days.

■ WINNING FORMULA . . . Stephanie Bruce won £200,700 in the BBC People's Quiz programme shown on Saturday. Picture: Duncan Lamont 416430.

Quiz champ gets £200k last laugh

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CHEMIST Stephanie Bruce struck a blow for all blondes and Essex girls when she walked off with the top prize of more than £200,000 on a television quiz show.

Stephanie, 35, has had to bite her tongue for two weeks between the recording of the final of the BBC People's Quiz show and its eventual screening on Saturday night. Sworn to secrecy, Stephanie was unable to share the good news of her win of £200,700.

Although she has lived in Beaumont Vale in Haverhill for the past 12 years, Stephanie was born in Chelmsford and the programme's researchers picked up on a comment she made about being an 'Essex girl'.

She clashed on screen with presenter William G Stewart, who had to eat his words after saying that a woman could not win the show because they had the wrong sort of brains for quiz shows.

Millions of viewers watched as she was congratulated by the show's other presenters Jamie Theakston, Myleen Klass and Kate Garaway.

So far Stephanie, 35, is still working as a purchasing manager at International Flavours and Fragrances in Haverhill and is discussing with Ian O'Donoghue, her partner of 12 years, what to do with the money.

Stephanie said she had used up all her holiday for this year to film the show, which started in January, with thousands of contestants being whittled down to nine finalists.

She said "It has been absolutely killing me not being able to say anything to anyone and because of that it has not really seemed real so far. Being blonde and from Essex I have got so sick of Essex girl jokes all my life. It was lovely to win the money, but it was also nice to prove them all wrong.

"Ian is away in Ireland for a week, so when he gets back we will sit down and talk about it, but at the moment we are still in shock.

"We have been together for 12 years so he has not just turned up for the money, he was with me when I did not have any. I have already done a lot of travelling both for work and socially, but I think we might have a nice trip next year, perhaps whale watching.

"I was up against a lot of semi-professional quizzers who do it all the time, so when people said 'you are never going to win' it was nice to prove them wrong."

Stephanie is a keen archaeologist in her spare time and is considering going back to university to study to become a professional archaeologist. She already has a first-class degree in chemistry.

Mayor taken ill on visit

ANXIOUS colleagues have been sending get well messages to Ted Trebble, Haverhill's town mayor, who has been hospitalised in Norfolk.

Coun Trebble (pictured) is believed to have suffered a stroke while visiting the county and is still receiving treatment at the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital, where a spokesman described his condition as "comfortable".

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill Town clerk, said a number of councillors had made enquiries about Coun Trebble's condition but had not been able to discover much. Mr

Mussett said: "We are all very concerned about him and wish him a speedy recovery."

Coun Trebble took over the role of mayor in May after being elected on to the Town Council two and a half years ago, and more recently being elected to the borough council.

Floral invitation

BEAUTIFUL gardens in Haverhill will be open to the public for the first time on Sunday with money raised going to St Nicholas Hospice.

The event has been organised by the Haverhill in Bloom group and programmes will be available on the day from Hanover Housing, Pentlowe Hawke Close, off Millfields Way, at £3 for adults, with accompanied children free.

Les Ager, deputy mayor, is expected to open the event at 10am and it will continue until 3pm.

The 17-seater Haverhill Community Transport minibus will be providing a free tour between the gardens, or people can use their own vehicles.

Money pumped into town cinema project

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

COUNCILLORS have agreed to invest another £1.4 million in a scheme to build a new cinema complex in Haverhill after being told that it would guarantee a greater income from the scheme.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council granted planning consent for the £9 million five-screen cinema and restaurant development in April and it is due to open next Easter. Cineworld will operate the cinema, which is being paid for by the council, and will be rented to the users.

Members of the council's cabinet agreed at their meeting last week to invest the additional cash from unallocated Haverhill Masterplan capital to allow for additional investment value of the scheme and cover increased car park works costs.

A report to the committee said since agreement was reached last autumn with Citigrove, developers for the scheme, higher rent levels than expected had been achieved, which had increased the revenue stream from it. Citigrove had successfully let all the three restaurants and shop units to national names, and increasing rent levels by £41,976 a year meant a balancing payment of £699,600 was needed. The extra cash the council would receive from this additional investment would exceed the interest received if it was left in financial reserves.

Two automatic teller machines and advertising units to be included in the development will produce an extra £27,750 a year in income for an investment of £270,000. Infrastructure work, including an extra 90 space car park to the west of Haverhill Leisure Centre, has now been completed, but remaining work to redesign the drive-thru restaurant and add CCTV cameras is expected to cost up to £400,000.

Construction work started on the cinema in May. It will seat more than 900 people, and a new public square will also be created as part of the scheme on land next to the leisure centre in Ehringshausen Way. St Edmundsbury has described the plan as "an exciting development with high-quality contemporary architecture creating an entirely new leisure environment."

Life's a picnic for youngsters

LOTS of teddies went along to a village school this week and joined their owners at a teddy bear's picnic.

The event took place on Tuesday on the field next to Hundon Village Hall during an open day at the primary school. Parents also went along to join their children for the fun and games on offer.

The youngsters, their toys and teachers managed to avoid recent rain and enjoyed their outing.

New measure to beat fraud

HAVERHILL Citizens Advice Bureau

this month looks at passport applications and how the service aims to combat identity fraud.

Q: I am going on my first trip abroad in a few months time so I need to apply for a passport. A friend told me I will have to go for an interview. Is this true?

A: From mid-2007 all first-time adult passport applicants will be called to a face-to-face interview. The Identity and Passport Service (IPS) says this is being done in order to combat the growing problem of identity fraud. Applications can still be made by post, but all those aged 16 or over who have never held a passport before will be interviewed after preliminary background checks have been completed. Interviews should last between 10 and 20 minutes and in them people will be asked some basic information about themselves. IPS says this should not be deeply private information, but it will need to be information that can be checked. IPS says it is aiming that 95 per cent of the population will be within an hour's travel of an office where interviews will take place, and over half within 15 minutes. They also promise that the offices should be easy to find, with good parking and public transport access. For those in more remote areas, they will conduct interviews over a secure webcam link. Applicants will be asked to provide information before interview (for example, their national insurance number and previous addresses) which will be checked against government and private sector databases. These changes to the application process will mean an increase in the passport fee, but IPS has not yet announced how much the new charge will be. For more information go to the IPS website at www.passport.gov.uk. For free, independent, confidential advice go to the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk or consult your local CAB.

Haverhill CAB can be found at the Centre for Voluntary Agencies, in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9HB. The bureau is open for anybody to drop in without any appointment between 11am and 2pm on Monday and Friday and between 11am and 3pm on Tuesday and Thursday. Appointments for a first interview can be made by ringing the admin line (01440) 762194 or with the receptionist. Telephone advice at the bureau is available on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday between 9.30am and 11am on the advice line 01440 704012. www.adviceguide.org.uk provides information on-line. If you would like to join the bureau as a volunteer please ring 0845 1 264 264

Inquiry dropped

A TEENAGER who told police she had been accosted in Haverhill has retracted her statement and police are no longer investigating the incident.

The 14-year-old said she had been grabbed from behind by a man as she walked along an alleyway off York Road, Haverhill between 4pm and 8.25pm on Tuesday, June 19.

Debut festival fair proves smash hit

SHOWERY weather failed to dampen the enthusiasm of those attending a Strawberry Fair on Saturday.

The event was held at Sturmer Common, next to Woodlands hotel, and organised by the Sturmer Village Hall Committee to encourage villagers to use the open space. Displays were provided by the Haverhill Harlots morris dancers, Haverhill Karate Club and Dells School of Dance, with music from local band Born Out of Nothing. There was also face painting and entertainment for children, as well as a raffle and balloon race. The event was the first of its kind, which was included in the Haverhill Festival programme this year, and is hoped to become an annual event.

■ TAKING SHELTER . . . above, Ann Aken, event organiser, takes cover in the stocks. Customers want goods from shop

ANGRY customers who say they are owed hundreds of pounds or cannot get back their goods from a shop which closed suddenly are still in the dark about who to contact.

Sell4U in Queen Street, Haverhill, was hailed as a great success shortly after it was opened by brothers Tony and Chris Brown earlier this year, but it closed suddenly recently after difficulties with an online payment account.

Tony Brown said it had ceased trading, but he would try to return goods to as many customers as possible. However, this was made more difficult because their software had been frozen and they did not have access to records of customers' names and addresses, so had not been able to write to them.

He said anyone who had goods with the firm could write a note of their name and address, what goods or money was owing and any reference numbers through the doors of the shop, and he would return goods where possible or pass on information to solicitors.

Mr Brown said the collapse of the firm had been caused by the freezing of their Pay Pal account with £12,000 in it, and because of the company's rules that the funds could not be accessed for 120 days. He said as much money as possible would be paid back to people, but this would take longer to do.

Numerous people contacted the Weekly News to say they had not been contacted and did not know which solicitors to contact.

Eight-year-old Connor McIntosh of Abington Place, Haverhill, is still owed £50 for a game sold by the company, and the company still has another toy of his, according to his mum Debbie.

She said: "I have been trying to get his money for him since March, he is really upset. He had been saving up his pennies because he had always wanted a portable PlayStation and we had to lend him the money for it. It is a lot of money to him and we have not heard a word from anybody."

Penny Scattergood, who lives in Aldershot, heard about the business through a relative in the area and handed over several rings to be sold. She says more than £600 is owed to her

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

and some rings have not been returned. She said: "I have been palmed off with ridiculous excuses and since it closed I have not heard from anybody."

Lester Wilson, who rents out the building in Queen Street, said he was also owed money and had been in discussions with its owners to see if he could help resolve the situation.

If action was taken to evict the business from the premises, it might be possible at that stage to return goods to people who could prove their ownership, if it was legally permissible to do so.

Appeal for return of CD collection

THE owner of a lost wallet containing 40 CDs is appealing for their safe return,

The CD collection includes several albums by The Beatles and Paul Weller, plus The Doves, Lenny Kravitz and dance music, and Sarah is desperate to get them back.

She said: "All I want is my CDs back as it took me a long time to get these and will cost a fortune to replace. I am not interested in who has them, just as long as they return them."

Contact 07846 713071 if you think you may have found the wallet.

Supporters celebrate anniversary

A POPULAR meeting place built from two tumbledown cottages has celebrated its 20th anniversary.

Next Door is a coffee shop and Christian book shop next to the Methodist Church in Camps Road, Haverhill, which was created after former minister Penry Hughes had a vision of what could be done with the old buildings.

Helper Sue Symonds baked a cake for the celebration, which was attended by the centre's first co-ordinator Les Howard, and the latest co-ordinator Roger Arrowsmith, who has just taken over from Sandra Loader.

Next Door serves tea and coffee, as well as light lunches and snacks, from 10am to 2pm on Monday to Friday and 11am to 1.30pm on Saturdays. It is open to everyone and although it has a Christian book shop, people do not have to be church members or religious to attend.

Sandra Loader said a team of 30 volunteers ran the centre, which offered the same facility as it had always done. She said: "It is run on Christian principles, but we don't preach at people. If they have questions we will answer them, but we don't raise the issue. We offer friendship and company: we get so many people coming in who are just basically lonely. Everyone who works here is a volunteer, and any profit we make goes back into the church."

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

FRIDAY was an emotional day for many students, and staff, as the Year 11s leaving assembly took place.

The smartly dressed Year 11 pupils, along with many members of staff, attended the assembly to mark everybody's time at Castle Manor over the past three years. The formal graduation started with a speech by deputy headteacher Mr Lloyd, followed by the personal handing out of the Year Books. Each pupil was individually presented a Year Book to remember their time at Castle Manor, which included messages from all staff along, with a picture of all the Year 11s. Shortly afterwards, chair of the student council, Lee Mayes, congratulated all the Year 11s on their achievements and accomplishments during their time at Castle Manor, followed by a Year 11s leaving video, which highlighted all the students' memorable times at the school. Assistant headteacher Mr Grinham gave a touching speech to round off the afternoon and the Year 11s' time at Castle Manor.

■ After months of rehearsing the performance of Return to the Forbidden Planet is approaching. A preview was performed at the Year 11s leaving assembly as the cast showed their routine of Great Balls of Fire. The piece of the show had the chorus and the dancers impressing the audience as they showed off what they have spent months rehearsing for.

■ KS5 Year 12 and 13 pupils looked at higher education such as colleges and university's this week. On Monday, Mr Curr will be hosting a meeting about what to do after sixth form, and on Wednesday, students travelled to Suffolk Showground in Ipswich for a convention on further education. Over 100 representatives for colleges and university's were at the convention. This is a positive way for students to look at the different paths available to them after they leave school, and a valuable way to answer any questions they might have.

■ Last week Year 9 pupils also had an outlook on their future as they travelled to West Suffolk College to preview their KS4 engineering courses. The day went well with all students gaining a valuable insight into what to expect next year.

Dogs go walkies to help hospice

THIRTY dogs and their owners went walkies to raise money for St Nicholas Hospice at Clare Castle Country Park.

The first ever Paws in the Park sponsored walk saw dogs of all shapes and sizes put their best paw forward to raise more than £500 for the hospice, in Bury St Edmunds.

Free treats were given to all the dogs who took part, and their owners enjoyed fruit punch and chocolate cake.

Hospice community fundraiser, Ian Norris, said: "It was great fun. The dogs thought it was tremendously entertaining to have so many others to walk alongside. I am not so sure that the owners were as convinced."

Among those taking part were a group from the Best Buddies Training School at Bury St Edmunds, which used it as an opportunity to have a school outing.

Ian said: "I am so pleased at the turnout, despite the bad weather. We shall certainly do it again next year."

"A big thank you to everyone who joined in, and to Suffolk County Council for letting us use Clare Castle Country Park. We are also very grateful to Nestle-Purina, who supplied the dog treats, for their support."

Happy couple sings praises of landlord

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A COUPLE who have lived in their home for almost 50 years have praised the housing group which took over its management five years ago for recent improvements

Roy Brown, 82, who shares his house in Broadcroft Crescent, Haverhill, with wife Irene, was diagnosed with diabetes nearly 20 years ago and has been registered blind since 1994. He also has difficulty walking.

The couple were once tenants of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, before the council's housing stock became part of Havebury Housing five years ago. Although cautious about the initial transfer in 2002, Mr Brown is now singing the group's praises as it celebrates its fifth anniversary.

He said: "I was cautious about the transfer, but I've got no complaints. In fact I've got a lot of praise.

"Havebury has been very good in adapting the house for me, installing a stair lift and converting the bathroom. They are very good at organising things when we need them.

"Social services are also very helpful and Irene, who I'm dependent on, is a marvellous lady."

The first five years of Roy and Irene's 56-year marriage was spent living in Beech Grove, where they saw the new houses in Broadcroft Crescent being built. They asked if they could have a three bedroom semi-detached property, to meet the needs of their growing family.

■ HAPPY HOME . . . Irene and Roy Brown at their home in Broadcroft Crescent. CP

In 1958 they moved in, just before their youngest son's second birthday. Roy and Irene, 80, now have four grand children and have witnessed a lifetime of change in Haverhill.

Roy was a young crewman on a Royal Navy destroyer ship towards the end of World War Two, after which he trained as a carpenter and joiner, a trade he worked in for most of his life. Among his numerous projects he built the first four houses on Ash Grove in the town, as well as the first phase of Castle Manor School.

To coincide with Havebury's birthday, chief executive Steve Cook launched a five-year plan, setting out the organisation's work up to 2011, including the construction of 400 new affordable homes.

A further 1,000 properties will be built over the same period as a result of Havebury's membership of the e² Development Consortium.

Fly-tippers to face cost of clean-up

LITTER louts had better watch out is the message from Havebury Housing Partnership which is cracking down on fly tipping in West Suffolk.

The group is introducing a charge for anyone caught committing the crime, and anyone seen illegally dumping rubbish on a site owned by Havebury will be charged the amount it costs to remove the offending items.

Havebury tenants currently pay for the removal of fly-tipping through their housing rent. During the last financial year, residents picked up a £23,338 bill for removing 381 fly-tips.

It is hoped that if residents know the cost of removing fly-tipping can be passed on to individual offenders, they will be encouraged to report anyone they see unlawfully dumping rubbish.

Havebury Neighbourhood manager John Feveyer, said: "Fly-tipped items we have found over the years range from bags of rubbish to large domestic items such as fridges and sofas. Fly tipping is not only illegal, it causes pollution, is a general eyesore and costs Havebury residents, as rent payers, money to clear up.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"We have introduced this penalty to encourage residents to report anyone they see illegally dumping waste. It seems unfair that our tenants should pay the price for the actions of a few thoughtless people."

The move comes as part of Havebury's stand against anti-social behaviour in the community. Havebury operates a 24-hour anti-social behaviour hotline for tenants on 08000 758999. The housing association also working closely with Suffolk Constabulary's new Safer Neighbourhood Teams across West Suffolk, including a team in Haverhill which began operating from Havebury's offices in Manor Road at the end of last month.

■ Sandra Norris.

Sandra on the board

HAVERHILL resident Sandra Norris has been elected to the board of directors of West Suffolk landlord Havebury Housing Partnership.

Sandra, 63, has been a Havebury resident for just over two years and a member of the Tenants' Forum for almost as long. She joins four other forum members who sit on the board of directors.

Sandra said: "As a Tenants' Forum member I have always worked hard to ensure that residents' opinions are heard. Joining the Board of Directors moves this up a level and gives me the opportunity to actively represent residents' views. I am looking forward to it." Havebury was recently voted top performer for tenant involvement, beating 149 other housing associations across the country.

Sandra said "I will be working alongside the other tenant board director to ensure this excellent track record continues."

disappointment.

Hats and flags will be provided – just bring your pomp, your circumstance and your best singing voice!

The diverse programme will feature songs from musicals and shows, including a medley entitled Breezing Down Broadway plus The Chattanooga Choo Choo and The Lost Chord.

The evening will finish with the traditional finale that includes British sea songs, Rule Britannia and Jerusalem.

The organist will be the maestro Nigel Brown and the soloist for this year is Kelly LeRoy Mapham, fresh from her much acclaimed performance as Eliza Doolittle in the recent Centre Stage production of My Fair Lady. This will be her first time as soloist at the Proms and she is looking forward to it.

"After sitting in the choir stalls for 17 years, I am honoured to be asked to perform as a soloist in the festival finale," she said.

Tickets for the show are just £5 and are available from the Haverhill Arts Centre box office, or on the night. Telephone (01440) 714140.

Riverside pals come out to play on summer tour

By Nik Shelton

CAMBRIDGE Touring Theatre will be taking Kenneth Grahame's classic tale of riverside life, Wind in the Willows, around the region this summer.

The company has made a name for itself in recent years, putting on family-friendly shows in open air settings. Shows in previous years have included Robin Hood and Alice in Wonderland, and are getting bigger and bigger audiences every summer.

The company was set up by Rosie Humphreys after she had taken a career break to raise her children.

She said: "When I had my family I wanted to use my background in arts administration – I worked for the orchestral department of the English National Opera – and continue to work in the theatre.

"What better way to continue than to set up a joint company with my partner Simon, who is a musician, and Barry Evans from Ely, who is an actor and teacher, and to start up performances that appeal to the whole family. We are very proud of what we have achieved and are going from strength to strength."

The show – featuring all the much-loved characters, including Ratty, Mole, Badger and Toad of Toad Hall – will be at East Town Park in Haverhill on Friday at 6pm.

For ticket prices and booking information, got to www.cambridgetouringtheatre.co.uk move

to the future

www.movetothefuture.com

In the last ten years house prices have trebled and so have estate agents' fees. At the national average of 1.75%[#], estate agents now charge over £4,000* including VAT to sell the average house. Given the choice, we think most people would prefer to pay less and get more for their money.

Now Move to the Future are introducing a revolutionary new approach:

0.5%* + VAT

Yes, 0.5% for a full service with no compromises.

How can we do this? Simple. By concentrating on the things that matter and eliminating those that don't.

Our technology is so advanced we can eliminate many of the expensive trimmings so beloved by traditional estate agents, leaving us to concentrate on the essentials.

This doesn't mean we cut corners.

- ◆ Valuations and viewings are conducted by experienced professionals who know the local market
- ◆ Move to the future's valuers are fully-qualified to produce the new Energy Performance Certificates required in Home Information Packs (HIPs) from August 1st.

Each agent uses the Assentic VSS advanced software to

- ◆ Conduct a market appraisal
- ◆ Prepare the floor plan
- ◆ Prepare an Energy Assessment
- ◆ Prepare your property details
- ◆ Choose your preferred conveyancer

We market your property using both traditional media and web-based portals to reach the largest number of potential buyers possible. And of course you can view progress online at anytime.

Given the choice, most people prefer to pay less and get more.

We will sell your house for just 0.5%*

Increased demand for executive homes in town

THE increased demand for executive homes in Haverhill has led local estate agent Your Move to encourage more people thinking about selling such properties to do so now, as interest remains high.

Darren Baugh, senior manager for Your Move in Haverhill, said: "We are receiving a greater number of inquiries from prospective buyers about executive family homes – those that specifically offer three or four bedrooms and a garden – in and around Haverhill.

"We believe the demand is as a result of the growing attraction of the area from people who already live here as well as those from further afield, and confirms that many appreciate the facilities and close links to the M11 that Haverhill offers.

"The fact that we are an established estate agency gives us the ability to take an individual approach to the sale of executive properties, while at the same time customers can benefit from our years of experience and knowledge within the local marketplace. We also appreciate that sellers of executive homes may also be seeking to buy another property, and we can help them to find one in this area, further afield or even abroad."

For more information, contact Your Move on (01440) 702222.

Homes boost for families

NEW HOMES in Hales Barn are helping young Haverhill families to get a foot on the property ladder.

The properties have been built by Jephson Housing Association, one of the region's leading providers of affordable homes.

Jephson, which manages more than 300 properties in the town, has built eight properties for rent and nine for low-cost home ownership.

The home ownership properties include one-bedroom apartments and houses with two, three, four and five bedrooms. The three-bedroom houses are valued at £155,000, but purchasers can move in for just £62,000 thanks to a shared-ownership scheme which allows eligible people to buy a 40 per cent share in a property and pay rent to Jephson on the remainder.

New resident Jessica Fitchie, who is renting a three-bedroom house, said: "It is lovely here, especially as we were living in a first-floor flat before with a toddler and a new baby on the way. We had been on the waiting list for about 16 months, ever since our daughter Bethany was born."

Jessica and husband Lee, who is setting up his own carpentry and maintenance business, are now expecting their second child.

Jessica said: "We know we are having a boy, and he will be the first baby to be born on this estate."

For more information about the Hales Barn houses and other shared ownership opportunities, contact Jephson's East Region office in Milton Keynes on (01908) 226555.

THIS year the Two Counties Motor Show, which takes place on Sunday, has undergone a quantum leap and now deservedly takes its place as the most successful car show the region has ever seen, writes Mike Scialom.

The event is all the more remarkable because it is hosted for charitable reasons, with the funds raised steered towards Magpas, the East Anglian Air Ambulance, the Milton Children's Hospice and the St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds.

Now in its eighth year, the event has traditionally taken place at the Rowley Mile Racecourse in Newmarket. More than 200 new cars will be on show on the day along with at least 100 classic and vintage sets of wheels.

In addition to the cars there will be fairground rides, driver and motorcycle training, radio-controlled car racing, rally cars and – a first – an auction run by Antique Finds.

The event is a tribute to the good, and largely unsung, work of Cambridge, Ely and Newmarket Lions Clubs. The Lions Club network is “the biggest service organisation in the world”, according to Ely Lions Club’s Ian Newstead, who works on the committee which organises the Show.

This year The Davis Group has agreed to contribute £1 for every person coming through the gate, which is sure to provide a huge boost to local charities.

ESSEX FIRE AUTHORITY

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS: YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2007
PUBLIC INSPECTION OF ACCOUNTS AND RIGHT OF CHALLENGE
(AUDIT COMMISSION ACT 1998 ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT REGULATIONS 2003)

Notice is given that:

- On 16 - 20, 23 - 27 and 30 and 31 July and 1 - 3 and 6 - 10 August inclusive between 10am and 4pm any person interested may inspect and make copies of the accounts of the Essex Fire Authority for the year ended 31 March 2007 and all books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers and receipts relating to them. This does not entitle inspection of the accounts or other documents containing personal information about a member of staff of the Fire Authority, nor does it require any such information to be disclosed in answer to a question. The accounts and other documents will be available for inspection at the offices at which they are normally kept or otherwise by arrangement; application should be made to the Head of Financial Control and Governance, County Hall, Chelmsford, Tel: Chelmsford (01245) 431010.
- On or after Monday, 13 August 2007 at 10am until the completion of the audit the auditor, at the request of a local government elector for any area to which the accounts relate, will give the elector or their representative an opportunity to question him about the accounts of the Fire Authority. Any such elector or their representative may attend before the auditor and make objections as to any matter in respect of which the auditor could take action under Sections 17 or 18 of the Audit Commission Act 1998 (namely, an unlawful item of account, failure to bring a sum into account, or a loss or deficiency caused by wilful misconduct), or in respect of which the auditor could make a report in the public interest under Section 8 of that Act. Questions may be received at the Head of Financial Control and Governance's office (see above) or by prior arrangement with the auditor Mr J Rickett (see address below) to whom requests for this purpose should be addressed.
- No objection may be made unless the auditor has previously received written notice of the proposed objection and its grounds. A copy of such notice must be sent to the Head of Financial Control and Governance at the above address.
- The auditor for the Essex Fire Authority is: Mr R Bennett PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP The Atrium St George's Street Norwich NR3 1AG Telephone 01603 615244 Dated: 25 June 2007

PART TIME TEACHER OF MUSIC

We are seeking to appoint for September 2007 an enthusiastic part time (40 - 60%) teacher of music to join the Sport and Arts Faculty. A commitment to extra curricular activities is essential, and opportunities exist for instrumental teaching as part of the package.

The Department has a strong commitment to extra curricular music, with in excess of 200 students in receipt of instrumental music lessons each week and we regularly lead ensembles on tours abroad.

Linton Village College is a high achieving and over subscribed Foundation Community College serving a large area of South Cambridgeshire.

The College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. Appointments will be subject to CRB clearance and satisfactory references.

For further details and an application form please telephone Elaine Clayton, Principal's Personal Assistant on 01223 897224 or email elaine.clayton@lvc.org. Only applications submitted on the College's application form will be considered.

Closing date for receipt of applications is Friday 6 July 2007.

We welcome applications regardless of age, gender, ethnicity or religion.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Hat-trick for Robin as Lions roar to win

ROBIN Davis picked up a hat-trick on the way to a five-wicket-haul which helped guide Wrattling Lions to a six-wicket victory in Division Three A, of the Adams Harrison Midweek League.

Highpoint were limited to 100 for 6, thanks to the Davis bowling attack which saw him finish with 5 for 3, including his treble.

Paul Morris (35) and Aide Cox (26) starred in the Lions batting, but it was not until the last over that the hosts got to 104 for 4 with three balls to spare.

Clare managed to edge a two-run win over Great Yeldham in a top-of-the-table Division Three A clash that went down to the last ball, before continuing their push for promotion with a five-wicket success over Hundon.

Mark Goodwin (51) top-scored for Clare, who are now the only unbeaten team left in the division, in a total of 100 for 5 against Yeldham, then Andrew Gibbs (3 for 30) helped dismiss the hosts, who failed to get the four they needed off the last ball, for 98.

James Smith then took three wickets for Clare to hold Hundon to 100 for 6, who were led by a 43 from Shaun Spearman.

Matt Knight matched Smith's three-wicket haul, but Lee Phillips' unbeaten 44 led Clare to 101 for 5.

Weston Colville II brought Thurlow's unbeaten start to the Division Three B season to an end with a three wicket win.

Joe Robbins led the way for Colville with an undefeated 36 as the home side passed their target of 98 for 8 with a reply of 99 for 7. Dennis Willis (3 for 15) did his best to keep Thurlow's run alive.

Harry Randall (52) and Simon Bishop (45) got Abington off to a good start to lay the foundation for a comfortable 98-run victory over Weston Colville in Division One.

The pair helped the home side put up a score of 169 for 4 before Stuart Duquemin steamed in to take 4 for 7 to go with three wickets each from Martin Little and James Fairburn as Weston were bowled out for just 71.

Robbie Ketteridge's half-century went to waste as Horseheath became the first side to lose to Long Melford in the top flight, going down by 19 runs.

Melford managed 167 for 5 and while Ketteridge did his best to mount a successful chase for the visitors with a knock of 51, he only really had help from Dan Goldsmith (33) as Horseheath were pegged back to a reply of 148 for 7.

Ashdon were completely outplayed by Helions Bumpstead in Division Two as they went down by 114 runs.

Chris Raynor (60), Garry Dicker (64no) and Roger Foster (27) helped Helions set a big total of 171 for 2. Ashdon then collapsed in 15 overs with Mark Nunn (5 for 9) and Bradley Richardson (3 for 7) picking up the bulk of the wickets for the home side.

Horseheath lose on bogey ground

HORSEHEATH were well beaten by 138 runs in their CCA Senior League, Division One match at Thriplow on Saturday.

Visiting captain Gary Ellis won the toss and put Thriplow in to bat. They were in some early trouble as they slipped to 30 for 4, but Andy Craze (53) and Godric Smith (22) steadied the ship and Kevin Scully added 42.

The hosts were 170 for 8 with seven overs remaining when the fireworks from skipper Chris Neild began. He hit five fours and smashed three huge sixes on his way to an unbeaten 50. Neild and Dickon Turner (19 not out) shared an incredible 68-run partnership to put their side in a commanding position.

Stuart Ketteridge was the most successful of the Horseheath bowlers with an excellent return of 3 for 53.

Turner then made sure Horseheath, who are yet to win at Thriplow, were never in contention, picking up 5 for 34 from nine excellent overs.

Andy Morris (3 for 34) was also on good form and the bowlers combined to reduce Horseheath to 100 all out.

Opener Alan Ketteridge put up a fight and scored 39, before finally being the last man out.

A disappointed skipper Ellis said: "We were too aggressive and everything we hit went in the air and went to their fielders. Whatever we did, it seemed to fall to them. It was one of those games where we had an off-day. We've never won there and I think that was in people's heads when they got past 200."

BOWLS

Price delighted with result

HAVERHILL entertained a strong British Sugar team in the Men's County League at the Manor Road rinks.

The visitors were desperate to reverse an early-season result at Bury St Edmunds, but Haverhill maintained their position, gaining a four and a half of the six points.

Rinks and scores: Tony Freeman, Mick Taber, Pryce Hardwick 14, British Sugar 14; Alan Atherton, Colin Allen, Malcolm Page 18, British Sugar 13; Ken Hawker, Bernie Morgan, John Senior 25, British Sugar 16; Ian Bolton, Morris Pledger, Paul Strudwick 10, British Sugar 21.

Haverhill captain Pryce Hardwick said he was happy with the result, as British Sugar teams always put up a hard fight.

■ In the Bumpstead League, Haverhill B team failed to capitalise against Cavendish A, although the encounter was close to the end.

John Senior's Haverhill rink could only muster a draw, while Bob Smith's team won by a single shot.

Ethel Parkhurst's block went down by four, resulting in the majority of the points going Cavendish's way

Rinks and scores: Dianne Freeman, Eric Kiddie, John Senior 14, Cavendish 14; Tony Freeman, Ron Lofthouse, Bob Smith 14, Cavendish 13; Shirley Purr, Steve Nichols, Ethel Parkhurst 13, Cavendish 17.

Ethel Parkhurst, the Haverhill captain, said she was disappointed with the result as her team had been so close to getting the overall bonus, but had finished up with just three points to Cavendish's seven.

GOLF

Smith strikes silver and claims victory off Pat

THE silver division of Haverhill GC's Ladies' LGU Medal for June was won by Pam Smith with 71 from Pat Kennedy on 77 and Heather Eldred 78. Linda MacFarlane took the bronze division with a 68, ahead of Jackie Condon with 72 and Sheila Price 73.

■ The club's mid-week medal was reduced to a non-qualifier because the course had been shortened due to drainage work.

This may well have been reflected in the rash of low scores, which were returned throughout the day. Abnormal rainfall in the evening, though, did not help the later starters.

Both the low and middle sections were won with 62s, while the higher group was only one shot worse.

Leading scores - Division One: J Warwick, E Fairhead 62, L Chandler, D Whiting 66, G Carroll 68, D Bates, T Lyons 69, A Craig 71, M Warren 74. Division Two: D Cornelius 62, D Ross, J Stokes 64, C Rudge 66, D Whelan, B Wimpory 69, S Johnstone, D Cohen, K Ward 71, D Parsons 72, E Bates 73, R Rand, A Whitfield 76, D Simpson, G Donaldson 77, R Baker 79, N Seve 84. Division Three: G Dixon 63, D Burns 64, P Amies 65, H Thompson, M McGarr 66, C Addison, R Peyton, N Rouse 68, L Devonshire, S Haworth 69, H Reynolds 70, B Shuter 71, I Raper, J Atherall 72, P Bowes 73, S Darbey 74, M Couzins, M Everitt 75, B Harney 77, P Turner 78, P Deane 83, G Buckley 84, L Parkin, M Grove 89, C Beeby 92.

■ The format for the Lady Captain's Charity Day for the teams of four was the best two scores at the first six holes, followed by the three best at the next six, finishing with all scores counting over the closing holes.

Winners of the event with a score of 112 stableford points were the Bury St Edmunds ladies' team, comprised of Sadie Tricker, Bev Allen, Sue Brinkley and Susan Sanday.

Five points back were Tessa Summers (Aldeburgh), Melanie Lesser (Bury St Edmunds), and Mary Stevens and Carole Bostock, from Rookery Park. Gosfield, who were third on 104, were represented by Mary Vine, Eleanor MacGregor, Suzanne Drake and Pat Holmes.

■ The annual June Smith Silver Salver, an 18-hole stableford, was won by Pat Kennedy, who had the only sub-par score of the round. Four players tied for second spot, which was decided on countback in favour of Pam Ratford and Lyn Fish.

Leading scores: P Kennedy 38, P Ratford, L Fish, D Darbey, P Mills 34, J Condon 33, D Kerchiss, P Reed, G Wheatley 31, M Parmenter, A Thompson 30, D Walker, H Eldred 29, P Calmet 28, M Mercer, L MacFarlane, M Sail, P Smith 27, S Andrews 23, B Reynolds 22, J Adams 20.

BOWLS

North Essex sweep to a convincing trophy win

NORTH Essex bowlers recorded a superb victory over Northamptonshire in the Adams Trophy on Haverhill's Manor Road greens at the weekend.

Boosted by a strong contingent from the home club, North Essex won on four rinks, drew on one and came close to a victory on the other.

They won the overall match by 195 shots to 150, picking up 19 points to the three of their opponents.

There was also some success for North Essex in the Newton Trophy at Radwinter, where they picked up their first points of the campaign, despite losing overall. Despite the Newton result, North Essex president Bob Smith, of Haverhill, expressed his delight at the teams' effort and spirit in overcoming a very resolute Northants' side.

He said that it was hoped the teams could go on from this victory and gather more points in the remaining fixtures at North Cambridgeshire and Lincolnshire. The match was attended by Peter Asplen, president of the English Bowls Federation, who expressed his thanks to North Essex and his delight to see a team in such good spirit.

Adams Trophy rinks and scores (North Essex names first): Tony Sumner, Kevin Moore, Mick Harvey 31, B Sharman, G Agger, M Welsford 29; Alan Timlett, Lee Clark, Eddie Josh 34, F Holmes, M Elding, F Addy 25; Leo Dockerill, Aaron Phillips, Ian Beeton 22, J Clifton, M Cullingworth, P Montgomery 31; Robin Thomason, Andy Barnes, Malcolm Grimwood 49, T Molten, D Duffey, B Lawrence 13; Harry Sykes, Mick Taberer, Malcolm Page 34, J Jinks, F Richardson, B Swann 27; Roy Bareham, John Brookes, Gordon Williams 25, T Hudson, S Lander, P Brown 25.

■ In the Newton Trophy, North Essex gained three points, winning one rink and drawing another.

ROUND-UP

Thurlow lads kick off with a victory

THE newly-formed Thurlow Youth FC team, who will be entering an under-11 side in the Cambs Mini Soccer League next season, travelled to Braintree to play in the Sporting 77 mini tournament. The day was cut short by the awful weather with semi-finals unable to be played. The officials decided the only way to find a winner each age group was to give the trophy to the team who had performed best in the group stages. With two wins and a couple of draws in their four matches, Thurlow were section winners. All of the boys played their part in securing a trophy for the club, which will also be running an under-10 team, on their first official outing.

Haverhill clinch vital points haul

HAVERHILL Bowls Club entertained Sudbury Delphi in a midweek Federation League fixture at the Manor Road rinks.

A sterling effort from all the home players saw them clinch victories on all rinks. Haverhill improved their performance gradually over the 25-end game and ran out comfortable winners by 79 shots to 47.

The result brought them all five points, which provided a welcome addition in their attempt to unseat the current league leaders Boxford.

Scores: Bernie Morgan, Paul Strudwick, John Senior 20, Sudbury Delphi 14; Ken Hawker, Colin Jenkins, Bob Smith 29, Sudbury Delphi 18; Ron Lofthouse, Steph Smith, Peggy Mizon 20, Sudbury Delphi 15.

New players plea

HAVERHILL Rovers Ladies football team is looking for experienced players to add to their squad, which is resuming training in Haverhill in early July.

The team plays in the Eastern Region Premier Division, and are seeking to strengthen their team in all positions. Players who are interested in attending training should contact manager Gary Brown by calling 07894 553267 or by emailing gabrown306@hotmail.com

Double signing boosts Rovers

STEVE Taylor has moved to sign Louie Farrington and Wayne Goddard in time for pre-season training to get Haverhill Rovers ready for life in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division.

The Hamlet Croft club returned to training on Tuesday night, although the latest additions Farrington and Goddard were not involved in the light session, with the former preparing for his wedding this Saturday, while the latter is away on holiday.

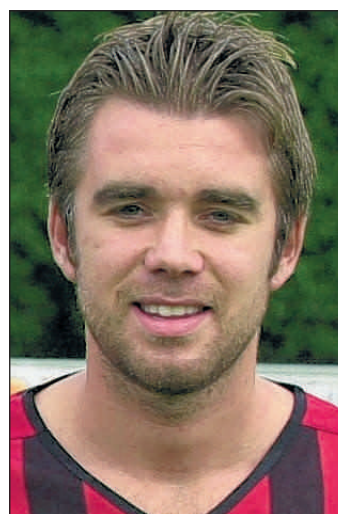

Roger Dourado was also missing after the midfielder underwent a knee operation in the closed season, which is expected to keep him out for the first few months of the new campaign.

Rovers boss Taylor has also convinced veteran defender Colin Vowden to play on for one more season after he helped the club to a history-making run in the FA Cup and earned promotion from the Ridgeons League, First Division.

The arrivals of Farrington and Goddard will see them link up with Vowden again as the trio used to be team-mates at Mildenhall and Histon before that.

Taylor said: "I have had my eye on Louie and Wayne for a while and they were both players I really wanted to sign."

"I said I wanted to try to keep everyone here from last season, which I think we'll do, and bring in four players, maybe five, so we'll keep looking to see who else to bring in."

■ NEW FACES . . . Wayne Goddard, left, and Louie Farrington, who have both been snapped up by Haverhill boss Steve Taylor.
